

Curtain Call Theatre's

Columbus Day (October 8th) Young Performers' Workshops

BACK TO FRONT STREET IMPROV!

Calling all young performers! No school? No problem! You're invited to the Curtain Call Front Street Theatre Improvisational Workshop this Columbus Day! Students will participate in a series of improvisational games and theatrical exercises that help encourage critical thinking and collaboration. These exercises are designed not only for laughs (though there will be many!), but also to improve communication skills, confidence within a group setting, and basic acting skills.

For 1st – 4th grade, we'll be focusing on introductory level improv and playing several engaging theatre games.

For 5th - 8th grade we'll be delving into intermediate level improv and focusing on technique within an ensemble.

Come join the fun!
